

FASD Study Group Meeting 2022

June 25, 2022

Hyatt Regency, Orlando, FL

"Enhancing the Relevance of Research for the Community"

Join us this year for another meeting of the Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders Study Group. The meeting starts at 8:00 a.m.. Coffee and snacks will be provided.

Keynote Speakers:

Jill Locke, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences, and Co-Director of the School Mental Health Assessment, Research, & Training (SMART) Center, University of Washington

"Leveraging Implementation Science to Increase Access to Evidence-Based Interventions in Community Settings"

Jared W. Young, Ph.D., Professor of Psychiatry, University of California, San Diego, and Co-Director Neuropsychopharmacology Unit, MIRECC Research Service, VA San Diego Healthcare System

"Cross-Species Domain Task Specificity: Revelations from where Pre- Meets Clinical"

We will also have our traditional series of FASt data talks where graduate students, post docs, and junior and senior investigators present their most recent results. In addition, we have Federal Agencies updates on current achievements, priorities, and funding. This year our networking lunch will be at Maggiano's Little Italy (9101 International Dr., Suite 2400, Orlando, FL 32819). Finally, we will announce the recipient of the life-time achievement Rosett Award.

March 18th Deadline:

FASt Data: 5 minute, two slide presentation. Open for all trainees and investigators.

Trainee Research Awards: Trainees submitting a FASt Data proposal can apply for a Trainee Research Award, which provides travel funds and registration fees.

Merit Award: The Kenneth Warren Merit Award is awarded to a graduate student or post-doctoral fellow who has demonstrated great promise in the FASD research field. The recipient will give a 15 minute presentation and receive a cash award, travel costs, and registration fees.

March 25th Deadline: Rosett Award nominations

May 1st Deadline: Early bird registration
